

The Planning Commission was established in 1998 as a requirement of State Statutes. At least five members of the Planning Commission must be City of Reedsport residents. Two members may be non-City of Reedsport residents, but either reside within the Urban Growth Boundary or have ownership of property within the City limits. Applicants are appointed by the City Council to four year terms. The planning Commission functions primarily as a comprehensive planning body by proposing policy and legislation to the City Council and implementing regulations relating to growth and development of the community. Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 7:00pm and additionally as needed.
